5 Katsuura Morning Market

319 Hamakatsuura, Katsuura,
Chiba 299-5233, Japan

It is one of Japan's three great morning markets, with a history spanning over 430 years. Held daily except Wednesdays, it features lively stalls where locals and visitors buy fresh seafood, seasonal vegetables, and local specialties like Katsuura Tantanmen (spicy ramen). Interacting with the friendly vendors is a key part of the authentic, historic experience.

6 Kamogawa Sea World

181 Kashiba, Kamogawa,
Chiba 296-0041, Japan

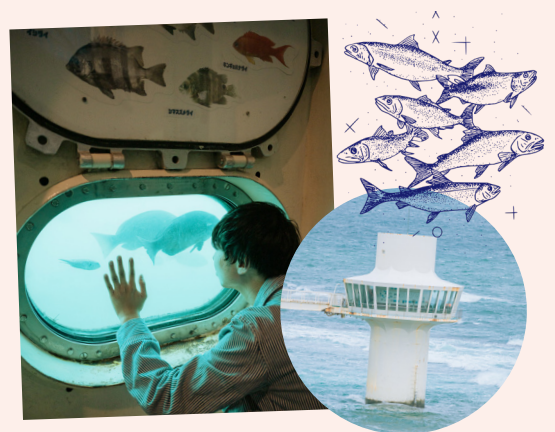

It is a premier marine park offering thrilling animal performances and educational exhibits. Visitors can enjoy spectacular shows featuring killer whales (orcas), dolphins, and sea lions against the backdrop of the Pacific Ocean. The park is committed to conservation and provides opportunities for up-close encounters with a wide array of marine life.

7 Nokogiriyama (Mount Nokogiri)

Motona, Kyonan, Awa District,
Chiba 299-1901, Japan

It is a spectacular coastal mountain known for its jagged, "saw-toothed" silhouette. A ropeway or hiking trail leads to its summit, where the terrifying Jigoku Nozoki (Hell Lookout) offers breathtaking views from a precipice. The mountain houses the vast Nihon-ji Temple complex, featuring one of Japan's largest stone-carved Buddhas and thousands of smaller statues.

9 Kujukuri Beach

Fudodo, Kujukuri, Sambu District,
Chiba 283-0113, Japan

It is Japan's longest stretch of sandy coastline, running for 66 kilometres along the Pacific Ocean on the Boso Peninsula. Unlike the typical rugged coastlines of Japan, this vast, arc-shaped beach is a laid-back destination renowned for excellent surfing, swimming, and marine sports. The area has a local feel with seaside shacks selling fresh seafood and the famous local hamaguri clams.

10 Tamasaki Shrine

3048 Ichinomiya, Ichinomiya-machi, Chosei-gun,
Chiba 299-4301, Japan

The shrine is a prestigious, ancient Shinto sanctuary with a history spanning over 1,200 years. Enshrining the goddess Tamayorihime-no-mikoto, it is a renowned "power spot" believed to bring good fortune for matchmaking, safe childbirth, and business prosperity. The shrine's annual Kazusa Hadaka Matsuri (Naked Festival) in September is a vibrant event, and its first torii gate is famously illuminated by the sunrise on the vernal and autumnal equinoxes.

11 Awa Shrine

589 Daijingu, Tateyama,
Chiba 294-0233, Japan

The shrine is an ancient Shinto sanctuary with a history spanning over 2,670 years, considered one of Japan's top three shrines for financial fortune. The main deity, Amenofutodama-no-Mikoto, is revered as the god of industry and business prosperity. Surrounded by nature and a sacred forest, the tranquil grounds offer a peaceful escape, and it's a popular spot for cherry blossom viewing in spring.
