

PLAN YOUR JOURNEY TO

Hokkaido Prefecture

Hokkaido Prefecture is Japan's wild frontier – vast, untamed, and refreshingly different. One moment you are driving past lavender fields, the next you are admiring carved snow sculptures. Seasons don't just change here, they completely transform the landscape, from vibrant flower-filled summers to serene white winters.

Hokkaido Prefecture

1 Wyndham Garden Sapporo Odori

7 Chome-7-1 Minami 2 Jonishi Chuo Ward,
Sapporo, 060-0062

A modern hotel perfectly situated in the heart of Sapporo, it is also steps away from the bustling Tanukikoji Shopping Street and the iconic Odori Park. It offers a convenient base for exploring city attractions and nearby ski resorts, like Sapporo Teine. Guests can enjoy comfortable, well-appointed rooms, a pizza restaurant and bar.

2 Odori Park

Sapporo, Hokkaido, Japan

Odori Park is a 1.5-kilometre green oasis that runs east-to-west through the heart of Sapporo, known for its beautiful gardens, fountains, and sculptures. A year-round cultural hub, the park is famous for hosting major events like the world-renowned Sapporo Snow Festival in winter, the Yosakoi Soran Festival and Beer Garden in summer, and the Autumn Fest in the fall. The iconic Sapporo TV Tower stands at the eastern end, offering panoramic views of the area.

3 Sapporo Clock Tower

2 Chome Kita 1 Jonishi, Chuo Ward, Sapporo,
Hokkaido 060-0001, Japan

The tower stands as an iconic wooden landmark in central Sapporo, built in 1878 as a drill hall for Sapporo Agricultural College, now Hokkaido University. This American-style structure, Japan's oldest clock tower, features a clock installed in 1881, chiming reliably ever since. It serves as a museum showcasing city history and draws visitors near Odori Park.

4 Moerenuma Park

1-1 Moerenuma-koen, Higashi-ku, Sapporo-shi,
Hokkaido 007-0011, Japan

The park spans 189 hectares as a visionary "landscape sculpture" crafted by Isamu Noguchi from a former landfill, unveiled in 2005. Highlights encompass the luminous Glass Pyramid (Hidamari) hub, 62-metre Mount Moere offering sweeping vistas, innovative playgrounds amid cherry forests, and the dramatic Sea Fountain geysering 25 metres skyward seasonally. Bike rentals enhance exploration of its art-nature fusion across all seasons.

Hokkaido Prefecture

5 Hokkaido Shrine

474 Miyagaoka, Chuo Ward, Sapporo,
Hokkaido 064-8505, Japan

The shrine is a significant Shinto sanctuary nestled within the serene Maruyama Park in Sapporo. Established in 1869 by order of Emperor Meiji, it was built to enshrine the pioneering deities and act as a spiritual heart for the development of Hokkaido. Today, it is a year-round cultural hub, particularly famous as a top spot for cherry blossom viewing in spring and for hosting the vibrant Sapporo Festival in June.

6 Mount Moiwa Ropeway

5 Chome-3-7 Fushimi, Chuo Ward, Sapporo,
Hokkaido 064-0942, Japan

The ropeway provides access to one of Japan's top three-night views from an altitude of 531 metres. The journey involves a large ropeway to a mid-station, then a smaller mini cable car (Moriscar) to the summit, where you can see panoramic cityscapes, the Sea of Japan, and surrounding mountains. It operates year-round, closing only for maintenance or bad weather.

7 Maruyama Zoo

3 Chome-1 Miyagaoka, Chuo Ward, Sapporo,
Hokkaido 064-0959, Japan

Maruyama Zoo in Sapporo is the oldest zoo in Hokkaido, nestled within the lush Maruyama Park. This family-friendly destination focuses on naturalistic habitats, offering up-close views of over 170 species, including popular polar bears, Amur tigers, and local Ezo squirrels. Highlights include the impressive Polar Bear Pavilion and the Elephant House, providing an engaging and educational experience year-round.

8 Nijo Market

Minami 3-jo Higashi 1-chome to 2-chome,
Chuo-ku, Sapporo, Hokkaido, Japan

It is a historic fish market in central Sapporo, often called "Sapporo's kitchen," that has been operating for over a century. Visitors can explore a lively atmosphere of shops selling fresh seafood like king crab, sea urchin (uni), and salmon roe (ikura), as well as local produce and snacks. The market is famous for its small restaurants offering delicious kaisen don (seafood rice bowls) for breakfast or lunch, allowing diners to enjoy the ocean's bounty right on the spot.
