

PLAN YOUR JOURNEY TO

Tochigi Prefecture

Tochigi Prefecture invites you into a slower and serene side of Japan, where UNESCO-listed shrines and temples rise quietly among forested mountains. Beyond its sacred heritage, you will find cascading waterfalls, tranquil lakes, and national parks that shift in color and mood with each season.

Explore a destination

- 1 Club Wyndham Sundance Resort Nasu
- 2 Nasu Highland Park
- 3 Nasu Animal Kingdom
- 4 Mount Chausu (Nasu Ropeway)
- 5 Stained Glass Museum
- 6 Nasu Safari Park
- 7 Shiobara Onsen

Tochigi Prefecture

1 Club Wyndham Sundance Resort Nasu

206-22 Yumoto, Nasu, Nasu District, Tochigi 325-0301, Japan

The resort nestles at the foot of Mount Nasu within Nikko National Park. This serene retreat offers spacious apartments amid volcanic highlands, featuring barbecue areas, public onsen hot springs, games room, and children's facilities for family relaxation. Guests enjoy nearby hiking, cheese farms, and craft beers in this nature-rich escape.

Source: visit-tochigi.com

2 Nasu Highland Park

3375 Takakuotsu, Nasu, Nasu District, Tochigi 325-0398, Japan

Nasu Highland Park is the largest amusement park in the northern Kanto region, nestled in the scenic landscapes of Tochigi. It offers over 40 attractions, including 10 roller coasters, making it a paradise for thrill-seekers and families. The park is uniquely pet-friendly, with specific rides and cafes designed for both visitors and their dogs.

Source: visit-tochigi.com

3 Nasu Animal Kingdom

1042-1 Ohshima, Nasu, Nasu District, Tochigi 329-3223, Japan

Nasu Animal Kingdom is a sprawling theme park divided into the indoor "Kingdom Town" and the scenic "Kingdom Farm." It offers immersive encounters with over 600 animals, including red pandas, capybaras, and Pallas's cats. Visitors can enjoy spectacular bird-of-prey shows and feed farm animals while taking in panoramic views of the Nasu Highlands.

4 Mount Chausu (Nasu Ropeway)

215 Yumoto, Nasu-machi, Nasu-gun, Tochigi 325-0301, Japan

The Nasu Ropeway offers easy access to Mount Chausu (1,915 m), the highest and only active volcano in the Nasu mountain range. A four-minute aerial ride takes visitors to the 9th station, where panoramic views of the Kanto Plain and volcanic smoke are visible. From the top station, it is a roughly 40 to 50-minute hike to the summit. The scenery changes beautifully with the seasons, from spring azaleas to stunning autumn foliage.

Tochigi Prefecture

Source: visit-tochigi.com

5 Stained Glass Museum

1790-2 Takakuotsu, Nasu, Nasu District,
Tochigi 325-0303, Japan

The museum is a beautiful stone building inspired by traditional English manor houses. It houses an extensive collection of 19th-century antique stained glass from Britain, filling the interior with vibrant, colourful light. Visitors can enjoy daily pipe organ and music box performances within its three chapels, creating a serene, medieval European atmosphere.

6 Nasu Safari Park

3523 Takakuotsu, Nasu, Nasu District,
Tochigi 325-0303, Japan

Nasu Safari Park offers an immersive drive-through experience with around 700 animals from 70 species roaming freely. Visitors can use their own car, rent one, or ride the special "Lion Bus" to see animals up close. A key highlight is feeding herbivores like giraffes and elephants, and even giving meat to lions and tigers through a protective mesh.

Source: japan-guide.com

7 Shiobara Onsen

747 Shiobara, Nasushiobara-city,
Tochigi 329-2921, Japan

It is a historic hot spring resort, known as a "treasure trove" with 11 distinct spring sources and diverse mineral properties, some with skin-beautifying effects. Nestled in a picturesque valley within Nikko National Park, the area features numerous suspension bridges, over 70 waterfalls, and lush hiking trails ideal for autumn foliage viewing.